The Disabled Veteran Real Property Tax Credit is a refundable tax credit available to honorably discharged veterans from any branch of the United States Armed Forces who have been rated by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) as at least 90% totally and permanently disabled. To qualify, the veteran must have paid property taxes on qualifying real property within the calendar year. Additionally, the widow(er), of a disabled veteran who claimed this credit in the prior tax year, may be eligible to claim the credit. Answer the applicable questions on the form to determine eligibility.

Refer to TSD-455 for additional information.

You cannot take the Senior Citizen's Tax Credit (SCTC-A) or the Homestead Excess Property Tax Credit (HEPTC) if you are claiming the Disabled Veteran Real Property Tax Credit.
